Curios and Relics Toys & Games "Parlor Monuments" Game

Excerpts from newspapers and other sources

From the files of the Lincoln Financial Foundation Collection

LINCOLN "JIG-SAW PUZZLE" SOLVED:

- 86a. (ABRAHAM LINCOLN). "PARLOR MONUMENTS TO THE ILLUSTRIOUS DEAD". J.S. Denman: N.Y., 1865. A very fine set of this rare children's game, with the 24 picture blocks in the original wooden box, pictorial slide-top. Together with the hitherto unknown poster-style, pictorial guide-sheet, dated August, 1865 (size 18 x 24 inches) listing, describing, and illustrating the five specific monuments children are to learn to build with these blocks. Three of the illustrated monuments are entirely devoted to Lincoln's life, achievement, and martyrdom.
 - 1. The Children's Monument to Abraham Lincoln.
 - 2. The Freedmen's Monument to Abraham Lincoln.
 - 3. The National Monument to Abraham Lincoln.

The other two are: "National Monument to George Washington" and "Presidential Monument", the latter, of course, including Lincoln. $85.00 In the course of an illustrated article describing a set of these blocks, acquired about a year ago by the Lincoln Memorial University, the Lincoln Herald, Oct. 1945, said: "As there are no directions as to the building of the "Parlor Monuments" it is not known how many combinations can be set up. Two monuments have been constructed as are shown on these pages." These rather rickety, though valiant, reconstructions scarcely resemble any of those on the original guide-sheet. As to the rarity of the item the same article asserts: "This game is probably the only one of its kind in existence and it serves as an interesting museum piece for the L.M.U. collection".
